

1 The clerk will ring the quorum bell.

2 Delegate Hardwicke.

3 DELEGATE HARDWICKE: Mr. Chairman, this is a bad
4 amendment. It really fouls up and makes a mess of 10.04
5 as well as 10.01. It usggests that there are exceptions
6 in the Constitution which preserve the Constitution of 1867.
7 There are none. The only places we will preserve the Con-
8 stitution of 1867 are by new language which embodies the 9 concept in specific constitutional language for this Con-
10 stitution. It is unnecessary. It is not a clarifying
11 change, but is a confusing change; and I urge the Conven-
12 tion to vote against it.

13 DELEGATE JAMES: Is there any further comment?

14 Delegate Needle.

15 DELEGATE NEEDLE: I don't mean to speak for the 16 merits of the proposed change, but would ask Delegate Clagett
17 if he would accept the minor amendment to his amendment to 18 say "specifically provided in this Constitution or".

19 DELEGATE JAMES: I don't think we can accept an
20 amendment to the amendment.

21 DELEGATE CLAGETT: I would have no objection
